LONG SHOTS AT FORSYTH.

The heavy track caused considerable scratching at Forsyth yesterday, but the fine weather brought out a good crowd. Only two favorites, La Creole and Ethelleah rewarded the talent, which overlooked Spendoline's prediction for the kind of going and let Hazel Hatch go to the post at a false price. Sixty has not yet got accustomed to the starting machine, and was left at the post in the third race.

La Creole, though she has not raced since last spring, was the favorite in the opening event. Mary L. made the running, followed by La Creole and Glenoid. In the stretch La Creole took the lead and won easily.

Yours Truly was selected favorite in the first betting, but he receded and Devoir went to the post first choice. Thomas Paine went to the front soon after the start and won handily, with Clematis second.

Ethelleah had little difficulty in winning the five and a half furlong race, Lottie and Woodlake fighting it out for the place.

Hillsboro and Blacking Brush raced in front in the seven furlongs, with Lulu T third. Along the back stretch Spendoline, who had been lying back, came up, and under a hard drive to the head of the stretch, overhauled the leaders and won with something in hand. Hillsboro was second and Evantus just beat Blacking Brush for third place.

Gomor was made favorite in the fifth event, while Montell was well supported. Hazel Hatch receded from 4 to 8 and 10 to 1. Both Wagner and Hazel Hatch were in front for half a mile, when Hazel Hatch took the lead and holding it to the end won by three lengths with Gomor second. Excuse was heavily played in the last race, Inspector Hunt and Ferryman II being equal second choices. Ferryman II made the running to the stretch, were Excuse overhauled him, and at the sixteenth pole looked like winning. McGlone brought up Inspector Hunt with a rush, and catching the favorite near the wire, beat him out a neck.

Jockey Dorsey also made his appearance from California, and rode his first race at Forsyth on Laura Cotta. He is under contract to Hankins & Johnson.

Barney Scriber, who is at St. Louis now, will be here Thursday. Henry Wendt, who will work for the Dutchman this season, is already here.

Joe Murphy came in from St. Louis yesterday and will be here all the week. His charming wife and children are with him. Mr. Murphy will rule the St. Louis stand with John Carter this season.

Tod Sloan, with the buttons of his vest in a flap, a stock of great cigars, much experience and an engagement to ride the Pueblo Stable horses this season, is in town.

Stable room is scarce at Forsyth, but before the week is out 100 new stalls will be finished. They are now about all engaged for. J. E. Kittson with Greenwich, Merry Monarch, and six others will arrive Thursday, and Phil Chinn with 24 including Bloomer and Jack of Spades will be here as soon as stable room is provided.

Season badges issued for Forsyth are good for that track only. New ones will be made out for the coming Sheffield meeting.

DAILY RACING FORM has moved its plant, according to spring fashion, and will hereafter do business at 126 Fifth Avenue, opposite the News office, in an establishment specially prepared for the paper.

There is and will be no weekly or monthly RACING FORM this year. A Quarterly of super-excellence will be published about July 1 in both paper and cloth covers, with an index that will be a revelation to men who pore over "the dope" and win by their study.

NEW YORK BETTING LAW.

The Austin measure, amendatory to the Percy-Gray law, is now in force in New York. It provides in simple for the English form of betting on race tracks and its principal—the selection of bettors according to fiscal ability. Those who can afford to pay a liberal sum to enter the betting endowment may bet in cash if they choose.

ANOTHER REGISTRY ROW.

The old quarrel between Registrar Sanders Bruce of the Stud Book and the Jockey Club has broken out again. Bruce has been registering—as he should—foals from Western owners sent to him direct, and not through the Jockey Club. This the Jockey Club declares to be illegal, under its rules. Bruce quotes the law of the Turf Congress and elects to register all foals, according to Turf Congress rules. The Jockey Club has resolved to bar all registrations made outside its avenues. Last year Bruce and the Jockey Club quarrelled and a compromise was effected. Virtually its basis was a division of the spoils. Registration should be made at cost.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Early Notice, b. f, 2, by Take Notice—Early Rose, by Duke of Montrose, has been sold to Dr. Rowell by Burns & Waterhouse.

Contentment, E. Corrigan's b. g, 5, by Favor—Happy Sally II, dislocated his shoulder at Ingleside last Wednesday in a jumping race, and was shot.

Californians are now applying the arguments of "this" good luck and "that" bad luck to the Ormonde—Kissing Crust oolt Orestes, who ran a bad race. But bad or good the colt will be carefully prepared and raced as a sample of the get of the $150,000 English horse. Orestes does not outlook the other Californian colts.

Joe Ullman's two-year-old bay filly, by Whistle Jacket, out of Mamie Stone, in Shark Williams' st Lexington last Friday, worked a half in :50 with 109 pounds up. This work was wired to Ullman, who immediately ordered her shipped east, that she may be prepared for her several stake engagements.

Horsemen are unanimous in their approval of the condition of the Newport track. Such shrewd men as H. Eugene Leigh, Hiram Scrogan and W. D. Frazier say that with time the Queen City plant will be one of the fastest in the west, judging from the time that has been hung out in the last few days. The track is perfectly safe, and the soil of that peculiar character that it has a natural spring.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Kentuckyism of correspondence is sending out reports and notions that lean towards Brown Dick's Falsetto—Fagina colt, Ulysses, as the probable winner of the Kentucky Derby. The colt is doing and working well. So he did last spring. Yet as a two-year-old Ulysses won but one race in six starts. Captive, Frontier, and Rewarder were as good or better work horses. Ben Brush, then his stable companion, could play with Ulysses, and Ben Brush will be in that Derby. The slop and slobber of the turf—as printed—is often costly. Brush, by the way, is now an 8 to 5 favorite in the future books. The price, too, is a natural one.

Dunois, a bay colt in the Scoggin stable and home bred, has won both his races at Newport in commanding style. Horsemen there think him the colt of the season. He is by the English horse, Florist, imported by the firm, out of Becky B, by Longbow. John McCafferty's eagle eye evidently overlooked Dunois, when, as was announced, he bought the selects of the Scoggin yearlings last fall. Becky B's the dam of George Beck, a fast colt before he got notional. Dunois beat a fair lot Saturday, 4½ furlongs, with 113 pounds up, in 55 seconds and an apparently better field still. Monday last, at half a mile in 50½, on but a fair track. The Blossom, Cynthia H and Vanessa were behind him.
